COUNTRY PROFILE

Antigua and Barbuda's physical beauty and strategic location in the middle of the Eastern Caribbean have earned it the title, the "Gem of the Caribbean." The twin-island nation with its near-perfect climate, breath-taking coastline and investor-friendly Government, has long been an attractive place to invest.

The country has been independent since 1981 and has established itself as a progressive, stable and multi-cultural democracy. The combined size of 442 sq km and a population of over 90,000, makes Antigua and Barbuda the 9th largest independent country by size in the Caribbean.

Historically, as a result of tourism and real estate, the country has experienced continuous growth in foreign direct investment. However, more recently, financial services, tertiary education and e-commerce have become significant contributors.

Bolstered by generous Government incentives, foreign investment has contributed to the rapid development of the economy, resulting in the country having one of the highest GDP per capita in the sub-region.

Antigua has direct flights from London, New York, Newark, Miami, Atlanta, San Juan, Toronto and Frankfurt. Over 70% of passengers originate from Europe and the United States.

Along with seven other states, Antigua and Barbuda is a member of the Eastern Caribbean Currency Union (ECCU), an agency of the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS), using the Eastern Caribbean dollar as its currency. The Eastern Caribbean dollar has been pegged to the United States dollar for the last 40 years, contributing to long term financial stability.
